ROOSEVELT VISITS TROY.

THE COLONEL'S FLYING TRIP TO THE RENSSELAER COUNTY FAIR.

AN INCIDENTAL CALL ON GOVERNOR BLACK AT THE CAPITOL-GREETED BY CHEER-ING CROWDS.

INT TELEGRAPH TO THE TRIBUNE.]

Troy, N. Y., Oct. 14.-Colonel Theodore Roosewelt had a cordial reception to-day on his first visit to the interior of the State since he was nominated for Governor. The report had been sent out from New-York late last night that he would be in Troy to-night, and would make a political address, but this was an error. He had simply accepted an invitation to visit the fair of the Rensselaer County Agricultural Society at West Sand Lake. Notwithstanding the circumstance that his visit here was not of a political nature and was unexpected, great interest was manifested in his presence, and the heartiness of the greetings tendered him indicated beyond question his popularity. Colonel Roosevelt departed from his home at Oyster Bay early this morning, and caught the Empire State Express on the Central Railroad for Albany. He arrived in Albany at 11:11 o'clock, and remained in the city forty-five minutes. During every second of his brief stay in the capital there were cheers, hurrahs, flag-wavings and shouts of enthusiasm in his honor. A thousand citizens gathered about the Union Station when the Empire State Express arrived. Edward B. Cantine, William J. Walker and several hundred Albanians were in the station prepared to greet him.

When Colonel Roosevelt was seen the gathering sent up a mighty shout of "Hurrah for our next Governor!" "Hurrah for Roosevelt!" "Three cheers for Colonel Roosevelt" Three cheers were given; another three were called for and came with deafening force; another three cheers brought forth the demand for a tiger, which was given with vigor. Colonel Roosevelt gave a hundred hearty handclasps to those who were presented to him by John Knickerbocker, of the Troy Committee, and Edward B. Cantine, representing the Albanians present. A sturdy policeman made a path for the Colonel, who, flanked by Mr. Knickerbocker and Mr. Cantine, and followed by a cheering crowd, passed through the station yard and the arcade to the trolley-car which was to bear him and the com-

During the brief journey to Broadway the Colone doffed his hat a score of times in acknowledgment of the applause of the hundreds who were massed in the arcade and on Broadway. "Let me shake your hand!" a dozen shouted, and the Colone's hand was extended and warmly pressed. THE CALL AT THE CAPITOL.

In the trolley-car which was reserved for Colonel Rocsevolt and the Troy committee, the Colonel was introduced to the Trojans. Colonel Rossevelt was told that Governor Black was at the Executive Chamber. "Let's go up and see the Gov-ernor," he said, and a cab was obtained to drive him to the Capitol. A great cheer greeted him when he stepped from the car to the cab. He bowed when the crowd sent up cheers. There was a quick drive to the Capitol, and the party, which included Colonel Roosevelt, Edward B. Cantine, John Knickerbocker and Adjutant-General Tillinghast, entered by the carriageway. The party was ushered into the Governor's private room. Goverror Black smilingly greeted Colonel Roosevelt, who acknowledged the kindly telegrams of the Governor sent after the Saratoga Convention, Governor Black and Colonel Roosevelt then had the Governor assured the Cologiel that all his influence would be exerted for the Colonel's election.
"I hope to see you in Troy before the campaign is over. Colonel," said the Governor.
"I hope to be there, Governor," said Colonel Roosevell.

Roosevelt.

The Governor's reference was to the expected presence of Colonel Roosevelt at a big Republican mass-meeting to be held in Troy soon, at which Governor Black will preside and make a speech for the Republican ticket.

As Colonel Roosevelt passed out he was saluted by those present and in response he raised his hat. Some one asked 'liow will you like your new quarters, Colonel' and the Colonel smiled.

While driving down Statest, Roosevelt's cab was cheered at Pearl-st, where a crowd find gathered.

The troiler-car to carry Colonel Roosevelt and the Reception Committee to Troy waited at Broadway and State-st. As the Colonel stepped from the cab to the car a cry arose, "Three cheers for our next Governor!" and two hundred Justy throats gave the cheers. Colonel Roosevelt bowed his acknowledgements, and at 11.15 the car started for Troy, where it was due at noon.

RECEPTION IN TROY.

Colonel Roosevelt was taken on his arrival here to the Troy Club. In the clubroom an inforreception was held. Many officers and members to the Troy Club. In the clubroom an informal reception was held. Many officers and members of the 2d New-York Regiment greeted the Colonel, and the leader of the Rouzh Riders expressed himself as exceedingly glad to meet the soldiers. Colonel Roosevelt then departed for West Sand Lake. At Albia the party changed cars, taking a car of the Troy and New-England Railway. Many persons had assembled at Albion. On the journey to West Sand Lake the Colonel conversed with members of the party, and seemed to enjoy the trip. Arrangements were made on the way to take the Colonel to Rensselaer to catch the train departing for New-York at 3:10 o'clock this afternoon.

The car arrived at the Brookside Park station in West Sand Lake about 1:15, and as the Colonel Bighted Doring's Band welcomed him wit title strains of "The Star Spangled Banner." Coaches were immediately taken, and the party was conveyed to the fair grounds. Colonel Roosevelt had a cordial reception along the way, and upon reaching the fair grounds the coaches proceeded around the racetrack so that every one could have an opportunity to see the distinguished guest. Colonel Roosevelt acknowledged the welcome he received, but on account of the lateness of the hour it was imperative that he should not speak, as he was obliged to proceed as quickly as possible to Rensselaer, that he might make sure to catch his train for New-York. He had an important engagement to speak in the metropolis this evening. There were loud cries of "Speech!" Speech!" from the crowd, but he was compelled to decline the invitation. His reception everywhere on the fair grounds was cordial, and he evidently enjoyed his visit to the fair.

GENERAL HARRISON UNABLE TO SPEAK. A letter inviting ex-President Harrison to make some speeches in this State during the campaign was sent to him a week ago by William Barnes, jr., chairman of the Executive Committee of the Republican State Committee. Yesterday Mr. Barnes gave out the following letter which General Harrison had sent in reply:

eral Harrison had sent in reply:

My Dear Sir: I have your letter of the 7th inst. Inviting me to make some speeches in the New-York campains for Colonel Roosevelt and his associates on the ticket. I regret to say that it will be absolutely impossible for me to comply with this request. I am engaged with my associate counsel in preparing an important brief, and we have only a few weeks now to complete it. I have been compelled to decline every suggestion to do any other work of to make speeches until this work is accomplished. If circumstances were otherwise it would give me great pleasure to make, any contribution I could to the success of Colonel Roosevelt, whose gallantry in war and whose integrity in civil office have commended him so highly to all who know him. Very truly yours,

TO START WITH A RUSH NEXT WEEK. PLANS FOR AN ACTIVE CAMPAIGN IN THE XIVTH CONGRESS DISTRICT-MEETINGS

ON THURSDAY.

The Republican campaign in the XIVth Congress District will be started with a rush early next week Election district meetings will be held in all of the ten Assembly districts comprising the XIVth Congress District nightly. On Thursday Colonel Roose velt will speak twice in the district. He will speak first at a mass-meeting, to be held under the auspices of the West Side Republican Club at Durland's Riding Academy, Sixtleth-st., Central Park and the Boulevard. This meeting is to be held, of course, in the interest of the State ticket, but it is especially arranged in the interest of the candidacy of Lemuel E. Quigg for Congress. The West Side Club has arranged for a parade, which is to be headed by the 9th Regiment Band and twenty-five mounted Rough Riders. The parade will start in the upper part of the XXIst Assembly District, calling at the various political clubs on the way to Durland's. The line of march will be down Amsterdam-ave., to the Boulevard, to Durland's Academy, at Sixtleth-st.

ther parade will be formed in the southern part of the Congress district, and will march up and through Tenth-ave, and across Fifty-ninth-st., to Durland's. Arrangements have been made for out-Durland's. Arrangements have been made for out-side meetings, and also for an overflow meeting, to be held in the Metropolitan Bicycle Academy. There is to be a vocal quartet and string orchestra-to entertain the people in Durland's Academy. Colo-nel Roosevelt will be the first speaker, Congressman Quigg the second, and it is hoped that Chauncey M. Depew will be the third. He is to be followed by John Proctor Clarke. C. N. side.

After the meeting at Durland's Colonel Roosevelt will go over on the East Side, where a large meeting is being arranged for at the Central Opera House, Sixty-seventh-st, and Third-ave. Lieutenant-Governor Woodruff will preside at this meeting, which will be addressed by Senator G. R. Malby, Archie E. Baxter, M. Linn Bruce and several of the local candidates.

There will also be a perade on the East Side, and the managers of the campaign of the XIVth Congress District say that this kind of work will be kept up until the night before Election Day.

FOR THE WHOLE TICKET.

The XXXIst Assembly District Association of the Republicans of the County of New-York held a meeting on Thursday evening and passed resolutions indorsing the nomination of Colonel Roose-velt and other candidates on the State ticket, and lican County Convention. The final resolution de-clared: "We pledge our earnest support to the Re-publican ticket from top to bottom, and recom-mend the nominees thereon to all independent voters who believe in sound money and honest gov-ernment." praising the candidates nominated by the Repub-

Mr. Dease thoroughly indured the views held by Colonel Roosewelt and other Republicans as to the propriety of retaining all the territory acquired by conquest during the late war with Spain, the gold standard, protection for American industries, and good government as administered by the Republican party. Those present were in sympathy with and applicated Mr. Dease's utterances.

JOHN MURRAY MITCHELL'S RENOMINATION

CAME AS AN INDORSEMENT OF HIS SPLENDID WORK FOR SOUND MONEY

John Murray Mitchell's renomination by the Republicans of the VIIIth Congress District came as a natural indersement and commendation of the splendid work achieved by him in the interest of his party and the cause of sound money. The man who could twice in succession defeat the Tammany Tiger in his own favorite stamping-ground was considered the logical choice of the Republicans in their efforts to win out again in the district this fall. Mr. Mitchell's district has been made notorious by the "Whyso Gang" and the "Cherry Hill Gang," besides other unorganized criminals who made infamous election frauds a part of the political history of this It was in this district that the crooked work was done which defeated Blaine for the Presidency. In conducting two successful campaigns for Congress Mr. Mitchell has been absolutely fearless, and his own expense, in 1894, he employed a corps of detectives, through whom he was able to pose the daring frauds attempted by his opponents. In the election of 1896, although Tammany was of fering to bet overwhelming odds that he would be defeated, Mr. Mitchell ran up a majority of 1,269.

In 1859 he formed a pertnership with his two brothers, Edward and William, and again, in 1854, he associated himself with John R. and Benjamin F. Dos Passos for the practice of law.

Since being in Congress Mr. Mitchell has given much of his attention to the currency question, and has made for himself an enviable reputation among his collengues and with the Administration for his marked ability in this direction. His was the honor to be selected as one of a sub-committee of three of the Banking Committee of the House of Representatives, which was created for the purpose of drawing up a currency measure. In connection with the work of this committee Mr. Mitchell has been untiring in his devotion to its duties, and the measure which has been framed by and which is expected to be taken up at the next session, has received unqualified praise from all parts of the country. For this reason and for the inestimable services which he will be able to render in connection with this subject, the adherents of sound money at Washington are watching with unusual interest his campaign for re-election.

ROOSEVELT AND THE ROUGH RIDERS.

THEIR GOOD CONDITION DUE TO THE COLONEL, SAYS THE ASSISTANT SURGEON

"The Medical News" to-day publishes an article by Dr. Frank Donaldson, assistant surgeon of the 1st Volunteer Cavalry, treating of the physical condition of the Rough Riders at mustering out. The writer says with reference to the lack of certain necessities in Cuba:

tain necessities in Cuba:

Our troopers, however, did have rather more and better tood than most of the regiments. Thanks to Colonel Roosevelt's unceasing thoughtfulness for the men, and his delightful contempt for red tape where their needs were concerned, we were enabled to "rustle" quantities of food and stimulants. His private purse was always open, and he often told me to stop at no expense in getting supplies of all kinds. As I said, the regiment returned in excellent condition, and with his permission we immediately established the despised regimental hospital.

I can give no better proof of the care which Colonel Roosevelt demanded for his men and which they received than the fact that there were only thirty men who were really too sick to come to Montauk to'be mustered out. I make this statement advisedly, for I have a complete list of those who were not on hand when we finally broke camp. The actual number which did not come to be mustered out was 103. Many of these, however, though physically able to get back, were delayed in returning from various causes. From the men not seen personally I have received letters regarding their condition, and after carefully examining my notes I am safe in making this statement: Of these thirty only twenty were ill, and at the present writing we have but four men seriously sick; these four with typhoid fever. This record is a source of considerable pride to us, for surely thirty ill men out of a regiment of 1...) speaks eloquently for the care which they had received.

speaks eloquently for the care which they had received.

As I said before, we could not have obtained this result had it not been for Colonel Roosevelt's constant help, moral and financial, and I can truthfully say that it is to his unseithsh devotion, unceasing oversight and his personal interest in every man that this volunteer regiment has come out in such good shape. Moreover, his interest did not cease with the breaking up at Montauk. Acting under his orders, the condition and position of every man sick or in need have been looked into by me and their necessities provided for. Of course, I do not mean to say that there were not men mustered out who were more or less sick; a number of them still having certain stomach and number of them still having certain stomach and intestinal trouble, and occasional fever.

NOT MUCH MONEY WAGERED AS YET.

A BET OF $10,000 EVEN MADE ON THE RESULT-TAMMANY AT ONE OF ITS OLD TRICKS.

Not much money has been wagered on the result of the election as yet. When the Republican betters went forth to find persons to cover their money, soon after the convention at Saratoga, they for few willing to risk any money on Van Wyck, and the few Tammany men who bet then got liberal odds in their favor. At that time it was generally conceded that Colonel Roosevelt had practically a "walk-over." Since then, however, the active followers of Tammany have appeared in public places not in a meek and humble spirit, but in a boisterou. and noisy manner, claiming everything in sight for their candidate. This is an old trick of the Tammany enthusiasts to influence the betting on the election and to try to gain some votes for their These enthusiasts, at least, have suck supporters have shown more desire to bet and have made some wagers.

The betting downtown on the outcome of the election for Governor is increasing in volume. Bell & Co., of No. 89 Broadway, are now handling betting money on both sides, there having been intrusted to them a large amount of Roosevelt money to be staked on even terms, and of Van Wyck to be staked on even terms, and of Van Wyck for the staked on even terms, and of Van Wyck for the staked on even terms, and of Van Wyck for the form was one of $250 on Van Wyck to $450 on Roosevelt, J. Everyhody who learned of the visit of the two unknown men to Wall Street laughed at the story that the men had $100,000 to bet on Van Wyck at even money yesterday. It was said that if the men really mean business they would have shown a disposition to get the best olds. Any person intrusted with the placing of so large a commission would be about three or four weeks in distributing it.

It is commonly said that people die of this or that particular disease. The truth is they die of constitutional weakness. If more people realized this they would understand why the great "Golden Medical Discovery" invented by Dr. R. V. Pierce of Buffalo, N. It gives the digestive and blood making organs, where consumption usually begins, power to do their work completely so that no poisonous dregs can get work completely so that no poisonous dregs can get into the circulation to fasten on the lungs and vital

"I have been troubled with bronchitis for several years," writes Mrs. Orlin O'Hara, of Fergus Falls, Minn. (Box 174).

"In the first place I had sore throat; doctored with different doctors and took various medicines, but got no lasting relief. We made up our minds to try the medicine advertised as Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. After I had taken one bottle we thought we could see a little change. We sent and got another bottle of the Golden Medical Discovery' and also one of 'Favorite Prescription.' I took them alternately, and in a few days I began to see that I was better for certain. I took eight bottles of 'Golden Medical Discovery' and two of 'Favorite Prescription,' and, really. I have not felt us well in years. I sleep better than I have in twenty years."

THE CAMPAIGN IN ERIE COUNTY BEING WAGED ON NATIONAL ISSUES.

WHY WILLIAM F. MACKEY WANTS TO BE A STATE SENATOR-STRONG CANDIDATES PLACED IN THE FIELD BY THE REPUBLICANS.

[FROM A STAFF CORRESPONDENT OF THE TRIBUNE.] Buffalo, Oct. 14.—"Free-silver coinage" is again an issue in the XLVIIth Senate District, for the Democrats have nominated William F. Mackey, one of the most conspicuous followers of William J. Bryan, for Senator in this district. Mr. Mackey is receiving assistance from Senator Edward Murphy, jr., New-York's silver Senator, and therefore the con test promises to be a warm one, since Murphy has a large amount of "the sinews of political war" to has gained a large following in the district by giving close attention in Washington to its needs. In 1806 his majority amounted to 3.858 votes. He has brought about the resumption of work on the handsome new postoffice of Buffalo, and secured in the first six months of his Congressional service $2.200,000 for the Buffalo breakwater. This breakwater when completed will make the harbor of the city one of the finest in the world. The new postoffice is rapidly nearing completion, and is a very artistic and imposing structure. The Democratis have nominated William H. Ryan, a strong supporter of the free-coinage policy of the Democratic party, for Congress, in opposition to Mr. Mahany. Mr. Mahany's Congress district covers the east side of Buffalo. The west side of Buffalo, composed of the finest residences, and the rural towns of Eric County, are in the XXXIIId Congress district, which is represented by De Alva S. Alexander. Mr. Alexander has one of the finest Congress districts in the United States. The workingmen living in his district are most comfortably housed, and the merchants and professional men of Buffalo have beautiful homes. Then the rural parts of the district include towns like East Aurora, Springville. Hamburg, Akron and Tonawanda, which are prosperous and growing towns. Mr. Alexander was a prominent lawyer of Buffalo when, in 1888, Benjamin Harrison, the Republican candidate for President, sent for him and asked him to be his private secretary that campaign. Mr. Alexander accepted that offer, and rendered such valuable service to Mr. Harrison that, upon the the latter's election as President, he was appointed District-Attorney for the Northern District of New-York. In 1806 Mr. Alexander received 27,573 votes, to 14,636 given to Harvey W. Richardson. He thus had 12,937 majority. Mr. Alexander the last two years has given great satisfaction to his constituents. His leading legislative act was the passage of the Grand Island will be a great addition to the facilities for travel in this region. bring about his own re-election as United States Mackey bases his claim for an election as State Senator upon his wish to be in Albany in January next, when the Legislature elects a United States Senator, in order that he may vote for Murphy. Senator Murphy's vote in favor of Senator Teller's resolution declaring United States bonds payable in silver dollars worth 50 cents especially pleased Mackey, and since then he has had an ardent desire to be elected a State Senator to show his appreciation of Murphy's act by voting in favor of his re-election as Senator.

tirely of wards of the city of Buffalo-the First, Second, Third, Sixth, Fifteenth, Nineteenth, Twentieth, Twenty-second, Twenty-third and Twenty-fourth wards. The First Ward is a region of tenement-houses and manufactories, and was formerly represented in the Legislature by William F. Sheehan It is even now represented by a Democrat in the Gibraltar of the Democratic party in Buffalo. But most of the wards of the Senate district are situated in the beautiful residence part of Buffalo, and they include the strongest Republican Assembly district, that of Henry W. Hill, in Eric County. The Senate district has one Democratic and one Republican Assembly district within its boundaries, and it is evidently Mr. Mackey's design to roll up such a big ceeded in influencing the betting, and the Tam- vote in the Ist Assembly District, where the Demo-many bettors are no longer getting such liberal odds—crats are in control, as to overcome the Republican majority in the Hd Assembly District, represented his brothers being Roswell M. Norton and Herbert F. J. Norton. The only political office which he has beretofore held has been that of Assistant United States District-Attorney of the District of Northern New-York during the Harrison Administration. In 1896 he made an able speech nominating James A. Roberts, of Eric County, for Governor at the Republican State Convention of that year. This was the year that Frank S. Black received the nomination for Governor.

In 1895, a Republican "tidal wave" year, Charles Lamy, the present Republican Senator, had 2,889 ma-

Mr. Norton is conducting his campaign with great vigor, but has not yet begun a speech-making tour of his district. Mr. Mackey is doing that, and in the opinion of Mr. Norton's friends is making votes for the latter and Colonel Roosevelt every time that he speaks. Mr. Mackey has been especially abusive of Colonel Roosevelt, an dthis has aroused the resentment of the soldiers of Buffalo. This city sent the 13th Regulars to Santiago and the 65th Regiment to Camp Alger, and it is not in a mood to hear unjustifiable attacks upon a hero of the war like Colonel Roosevelt. Nor are the business men of Buffalo in any mood to second Mr. Mackey's design to send a free-silver Democrat like Edward Murphy, jr., to the United States Senate. Eric County was ongly in favor of the gold standard in 1896, and caled its mind unmistakably by giving William McKinley 15,000 plurality. It therefore is not pos-sible that it will elect William F. Mackey as Senator and reject Mr. Norton, who is emphatically a gold-standard man.

THE GOOD SERVICES OF MR. HILL. Assemblyman Boland, Democrat, and Assemblyman Hill, Republican, have been renominated, Mr. Hill was himself a prominent candidate for State Senator, but the Republican party's leaders in Erie County thought that his services were too valuable to the party in the Assembly at present to spare him for work in the Senate, and therefore he was given the Assembly nomination instead. He was a prominent member of the Constitutional Convention, and as such was the author of the amendment to the Constitution under which the $9,000,000 canal improvement work has been executed. Buffalo is greatly interested in the work of enlarging the greatly interested in the work of the canal, and Mr. Hill has rendered such great services in the past in this direction that it is believed that his presence in the Assembly is positively necessary at this time, when there is danger of the work being abandoned owing to the unfortunate underestimate which was made as to the probable cost of the canal improvement. Buffalo thinks that the canal improvement should be completed, and Mr. Hill will devote himself to this cause if he is re-elected. In the years in which he has been in the Assembly he has become one of the most prominent Republican members, and therefore is in a position to have great influence when the debate begins next winter on the bills authorizing further work upon the canals.

It is argued by Republicans that it is to the interest of the voters of Eric County to elect the Republican candidates for Senator and for Assemblyman, since the Legislature will probably have a Republican majority, and, as members of the majority, they would find it much easier to pass those bills in which the county is interested.

TWO ABLE REPRESENTATIVES. Erie Canal, and Mr. Hill has rendered such great in Congress districts. Eric County has two Congress districts, the XXXIId and the XXXIIId. Both are represented by Republican representatives, although the Democratic Legislature of 1892, tives, although the Democratic Legislature of 1892, under William F. Sheehan's leadership, attempted to give the XXXIId Congress District permanently into the possession of the Democratic party. But an exceptionally strong Republican candidate, Rowland B. Mahany, won the district in 1894, and was re-elected in 1895 by a still larger majority. Mr. Mahany is once more a candidate, with a good prospect of being elected. He is only thirty-four years old; he was born in 1894, but he

The Democratic leaders are working like Trojans to pull victory out of the election this fall. They have plenty of money, as the assessments have been made, and the leaders are talking loudly about victory. They have decided that Mr. Van Wyck shall speak in the campaign at various places in the State, but they say scornfully that he will not

STOVER WANTS M'DONALD OFF THE TICKET.

AND SAYS HE HAS A BETTER ONE.

There was a secret meeting of the Executive Committee of the Chicago Platform Democrats at

No. 19 West Twenty-fourth-st., last night, and at its close Charles B. Stover, who was one of the prominent spirits in the Henry George campaign, leclared that Henry M. McDonald must get off the ticket. He said he had requested Mr. McDonold to get off the ticket, as he had promised to do, when get off the ticket, as he had promised to do, when a more suitable candidate should be selected. Mr. Stover said that such a man was now available, but he would not say who the man was. Mr. McDo old has no intention of giving up the nomination. He said last night that the petitions from every county in the State ewer either in Albany or on their way there. There had been some doubt regarding Sullivan and Delaware counties, and it was feared that the men in charge of the petitions had been bought off by certain interested persons. Late last night, however, Mr. McDonaid and his followers were made happy by the receipt of telegrams from the leaders of the two doubtful counties announcing that the required signatures had been obtained and the certificates forwarded to heen obtained and Albany.

Mr. Stover and the men opposed to Mr. Mc Donald declare that they will not vote for him They are rather guarded in their statements, but it is evident that Mr. McDonald does not possess the confidence of many prominent silverites.

SKETCH OF E. M. FISHER.

THE REPUBLICAN CANDIDATE FOR CONGRESS IN THE XTH DISTRICT. Elliah M. Fisher, the Republican nominee for Congress in the Xth District, is a New-Yorker through and through. He has lived in the district all his life, and has been a prominent figure in its political history from the time of his first vote. Of fine appearance and impressive address, with a genial, whole-souled disposition, Mr. Fisher has made a host of friends, who are now banding themselves together in order to make certain his election. Mr. Fisher looks back upon a long and successful business career. In his district is a large labor element, from the big factories of the lower West Side. He has ever been an earnest advocate of protection to American in dustry and labor, and his stanch and loyal friendship for the laboring class will bring hundreds of votes which have never before been cast his boss hasn't said whether he will let him speak his little piece or not.

It was said at the headquarters that all the dates for ex-Justice Van Wyck's tour had not been made out as yet, but that in all probability he will make a speech every night after next Monday. After the ratification meeting of Tammany hall here on Tuesday night he will go up the State Somewhere. On Saturday night of next week he speaks at Buffalo with Elliot Danforth; on Monday, October 24, at Rochester; on October 26 at Syracuse, and on October 31 at Utica. The intervening dates will be filled out later. Mr. Fisher was born in this city in 1810. He received his early education in the public schools and was graduated from the old Free Academy, After a three years' course, he took his degree as veterinary surgeon and practised his profession he engaged in the forwarding business in the drygoods district, with which he has been identified to the present time. By close attention to business, coupled with the strictest honesty and integrity, Mr. Pisher has been successful in a marked degree. He has two offices, one at No. 213 West

Broadway, and another at No. 556 West Seventeenth-st.

With Mr. Fisher for standard-bearer and with a united party behind him, the Republicans of the Xth Congress District are confident of giving Amos J. Cummings one of the hardest lights he has ever had. Mr. Fisher, who knows the district like a book, is enthusiastic ever his prospects, and will make a systematic house-to-house canvass. He is an earnest, convincing speaker, and his appearance on the platform is expected to win him many doubtful votes. Mr. Fisher has always been a hard worker of the regular Republican organization of the district. He has been its vice-president, and has been the presiding officer of scores of conventions. He has served many times as a delegate to State conventions, and has been a member of the County Committee of New-York for years.
